MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to DD/A

25X1A

SUBJECT : CIA Regulation [REDACTED]

REFERENCE : Your memo 8 Oct 52, same subject

1. Regarding your first point on paragraph 1C(2)(c), in which you draw the conclusion that a man would lose his shirt at $3 per day, I recommend that, or at least suggest, we cross this bridge when we come to it. The policy was drawn after considerable discussion, study, and review of its past experience. I would hazard the guess that the chances are strongly against a civilian employee being kept on TDY within the United States more than 120 days at any one time.

2. Your second comment on paragraph 1C(2)(a) overlooks the fact that paragraph 1C(2) covers, in its subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c), three groups of personnel who may be on TDY. Two are specifically described, the third is all others. Hence, any recruited civilian personnel with dependents on temporary duty in Washington enroute to their first overseas station would fall under paragraph (c) "all others," and would have applied to them the sliding scale of $9, $6, and $3.

3. If you feel that I have misread the Regulation, I suggest that we jointly go back to the supporting papers from which came this revision. If that does not suffice, we can turn to the authority or authorities and perhaps address a request for interpretation to the Office of the General Counsel.
